

Call for Nominations for the 2021 Stittsville Volunteer Awards

Do you know a person, business or community group going above and beyond to make a difference in Stittsville? We want to hear about them!

The Stittsville Volunteer Awards are an opportunity to highlight and celebrate the dedication of volunteers in our community. There will be six categories of awards this year, including:

- The Roger Griffiths Memorial Citizen of the Year
Awarded to an individual who best exemplifies community involvement and participation.
- Senior of the Year
Awarded in recognition of a senior citizen who has made a significant and long-standing contribution to our community.
- Business of the Year
Awarded to a local business that goes above and beyond to support the community and make it a better place in which to live.
- Volunteer Group of the Year
Awarded to a group of citizens who are actively working together to make a difference in the Stittsville community.
- Youth of the Year
Awarded to a young person who exemplifies leadership, inspires their peers and has made a significant contribution to the community through volunteer service.
- Teacher of the Year
Awarded in recognition of an outstanding teacher in our community. This award celebrates the teacher who goes above and beyond to support students and inspire the next generation of leadership in the community.

Nominations must be received by email at the end of day on April 30, 2021, and the awards celebration will take place online on June 3, 2021.
